

Finlaysons named Adelaide Law Firm of the Year for the second year in a row

20 May 2011

---

Top tier commercial law firm, Finlaysons, was awarded the Adelaide Law Firm of the Year award at the ALB Australasian Law Awards in Sydney last night, cementing its reputation as one of Australia's leading law firms. It's a back-to-back win for the firm, having also received the award in 2010 and again in 2007.

Finlaysons' ability to retain major local, national and international clients and grow its revenue were vital factors in its award win. Its commitment to developing young professionals was also testament to its industry leading status.

Finlaysons' Chief Executive, Gerry Mak, was extremely proud to see the firm win the esteemed award for the second year running.

"The dedication, technical expertise and commitment of our partners and lawyers are just some of the reasons Finlaysons has won again," he said.

"For more than 160 years, Finlaysons has remained at the forefront of the profession, delivering fresh thinking, adaptability and foresight, and our team's reputation for providing a high level of leadership and service to our clients underpins our credibility, longevity and success.

"Although coming through a time of economic uncertainty which has contributed to a tougher business climate, Finlaysons has continued to grow and remain at the forefront of its profession ensuring its continued success.

"We greatly value the relationships we hold with our clients and this drives and motivates our team to deliver outstanding results."

For further information please contact:

Jennifer Sothman, Marketing Coordinator 08 8235 7769.