

FINLAYSONS LAWYERS

PROPERTY LAWYER 1-3 years PAE

- Established Adelaide-based Australian commercial law firm
- Work with leaders in the Property industry
- Modern office close to the Market precinct

Finlaysons is a leading corporate and commercial law firm in Australia, with offices in Adelaide and Darwin. We work with clients locally, across Australia and internationally. Our success and long history are built on specialist expertise, deep industry knowledge and excellent client service.

We are excited to offer an opportunity for a property lawyer looking to take the next step in their career in the property and development sector. As part of one of South Australia's largest and most respected property practices, you will be working alongside an enthusiastic, collaborative and dynamic group of professionals from Clerk to Partner level.

The successful candidate will have the opportunity to work on a variety of complex property matters. You will be exposed to high-profile transactions, including large-scale commercial and residential developments, multi-party joint ventures, and complex and large-scale acquisitions, gaining exposure to a diverse range of property matters and clients.

We are looking for a commercially minded individual who combines their strong legal skills with a practical, business-focused approach. Bringing your proactive and positive attitude, and collaborative mindset, you will have the opportunity to grow your career. Alongside supportive and respected Partners and senior practitioners who are leaders in their field you will:

- › assist with major property transactions, including due diligence, transaction structuring and commercial advice on acquisitions, disposals and leasing.
- › draft and negotiate commercial leases across retail, commercial, industrial and mixed-use properties.
- › support property development projects from acquisition through completion, including subdivisions, construction contracts, approvals, zoning and regulatory requirements.
- › assist with property finance matters, including mortgages, secured lending and complex financing structures.

We offer a highly adaptive and supportive environment where our senior lawyers provide guidance in your professional journey, ensuring that you have the tools, resources, and opportunities to develop. You will be part of a firm that prides itself on offering a challenging yet friendly atmosphere, where we value work-life balance, recognise and reward hard work, and encourage personal and professional growth.

This role is offered on a permanent, full-time basis.

To join our renowned Property and Development team you are welcome to submit your interest, along with your CV and academic transcript to HR@finlaysons.com.au.
